Iris Murdoch, Philosopher Meets Novelist aims to gather some of the world's present experts on Iris Murdoch, in an effort to promote dialogue between philosophy and literature. This is due not only to the nature of Iris Murdoch's work itself, but also to our belief that within Humanistic Studies there is a constant need for breaking down disciplinary barriers and reaching a deeper, fuller awareness of human thinking. Thus, the book brings together scholars from a variety of fields and places: Brazil, England, Iran, Ireland, Italy, Portugal, Spain, Turkey, Taiwan, and the United States and testifies to the interest that the work of Murdoch continues to inspire. The book is divided into two major sections: Part A, Reading Philosophies in Literature, includes articles focusing on Iris Murdoch's philosophical concerns and their general influence in her work; Part B, Reading Literature through Philosophy, is intended as a sort of application ground, a series of case-studies wherein authors depart from novels to retrieve the underlying philosophical thinking.
