The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven^{1st} (first) edition Text Only Sherman Alexie
In this darkly comic short story collection, Sherman Alexie, a Spokane/Coer d'Alene Indian, brilliantly weaves memory, fantasy, and stark realism to paint a complex, grimly ironic portrait of life in and around the Spokane Indian reservation. These twenty-two interlinked tales are narrated by characters raised on humiliation and government-issue cheese, and yet are filled with passion and affection, myth and dream. There is Victor, who as a nine-year-old crawled between his unconscious parents hoping that the alcohol seeping through their skins might help him sleep. Thomas Builds-the-Fire, who tell shis stories long after people stop listening, and Jimmy Many Horses, dying of Cancer, who writes letters on stationery that reads "From the Death Bed of James Many Horses III, even though he actually writes them on his kitchen table. Against a backdrop of alcohol, car accidents, laughter, and basketball, Alexie depicts the distances between Indians and whites, reservation Indians and urban Indians, men and women, and most poetically, between modern Indians and the traditions of the past.
