Being a Father: Poems

"Being a Father disarms me, touches my heart, and deepens my understanding of parenthood through the freshness of the poetic experience. I find the rhythm of Glaser's poetry deceptively simple. This easy movement, coupled with his use of vowels and consonants create a structural complexity that, for me as a vocalist, feels and tastes in my mouth as delicious and nourishing a dish as any that the great word-chefs serve." - James R. Sims, The Montserrat Review.
