A humiliating story of a man who loses everything...

Kate and Joel take a romantic trip to Budapest for their anniversary. But their quest for a change of perspective becomes literal for Joel when a gypsy curses him. As a little girl, he'll have to deal with brushing his hair and painting his nails, all while trying to turn back into a man. But his masculine tendencies and personality slowly disappear, leaving Kate with the daughter she'd always dreamed of having. Will she keep desperately trying to turn Joel back into the man she loved? Or will she give up and seek a new male role model for her precious princess?
