Messy or Neat, It's a "Brain Thing": A Tale of Two Closets Kathy Whitmire

It's amazing what your closet can tell you about who you are and how you think! Did you know that where you keep your toilet paper indicates how your brain processes information? Or that how you make your bed is an indicator of how you learn? This book takes a humorous look at two homes and their occupants. As you read, you may identify with the homeowners or may know someone very much like them. In the end, you will gain insight into yourself and those around you. With this new understanding can come improved relationships at home, work, and school.
