Docia Myers just received the best birthday gift a girl could get: a new journal of her very own. Now, if only something exciting would happen in her life to write about! In due course, wonderful things happen for Docia as she grows to womanhood in the arms of a loving Christian family. But Docia is not a Christian, and her resistance to accept Christ as her Savior and Friend perplexes everyone around her ... until God uses a series of events to reveal to Docia just how much more blessed her life can be when she chooses to walk with Him. This edition of the 1874 classic Christian novel includes a biography of the author and additional bonus content.
