Island Rhymes for Island Times Nan Hatch

I came to live in the islands of the West Indies as a seventeen-year-old bride fifty-eight years ago. I have witnessed many changes in the islands in that time, but nothing has dulled my appreciation of my life here. I have always loved poetry, and most of my poems are about the islands of the Southern Caribbean, my life here and the lifestyle made possible by my proximity to the sea. I am a sailor. I enjoy being on the ocean on our sailing boat, "Cynara". I hope you enjoy the verses, have a laugh and perhaps see some things in a different light.
