Standard Handbook For Secretaries Lois Irene Hutchinson

This early work on secretarial work is both expensive and hard to find in its first edition. It details the many skills involved in being a secretary and includes chapters on punctuation, dictation, copying and much more. This is a fascinating work and is thoroughly recommended for anyone interested in learning secretarial skills. Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before, are now extremely scarce. We are republishing these classic works in affordable, high quality, modern editions, using the original text and artwork.
