El Lirio del Prado (Spanish Edition) Reynaldo Fernández Pavón

El reconocido poeta, compositor y productor musical Reynaldo Fernández Pavón hace otra incursión en la literatura, esta vez en el género de la novela. El Lirio del Prado ofrece la visión de hombres provenientes de España que en algunos casos llegaban a estas tierras de América huyendo de múltiples calamidades, de negros galoneados para ser esclavizados y de la descendencia mágica de la unión de estos seres que participaron en la creación de un nuevo pueblo y de una nueva nación. La estatura interior de los personajes los lleva a aventurarse desde Paso Real de San Diego a ciudades como New York, Madrid, Roma y París; en un proceso de crecimiento humano y espiritual impresionante. En un dialogo desgarrador entre los protagonistas: Rafaela y Emilio, se siente el aliento extrasensorial que recorre toda la novela: "Usted me veía desesperada y no decía nada. . . . Siempre que he regresado a ese día me convengo de lo mal que debí estar para haberme atrevido a arrastrar a nuestra hija a semejante aventura. . . A dónde fue a parar mi mente mientras cabalgaba en el remolino que me desapareció de su vida? . . . Había esperado toda mi vida por este instante." Esta novela escrita en el invernadero de varios años en la Ciudad de Filadelfia, donde reside el autor, marca con su publicación en esta editorial un momento crucial en la literatura cubana.
