The Tip of the Iceberg: Thirty Days of "Secrets" Mr. Michael F. Rabideau

The title of my book refers to the simple fact that many of our friends, family, and associates know very little about us. The tip of the proverbial iceberg remains hidden, waiting for the time for the author or person of interest to open the door or reveal the hidden portion underneath. The "secrets" may not be secret, but simply facts or ideas that we have failed to share with others. The range of "secrets" the public come to know enable them to see the full picture of the true individual.
