Endless Love Grace Taylor

Endless Love is a story about a close net village of people who are families, friends, acquaintances and of course strangers. They live the lives of people like you and I. They work, love and endure conflicts within and outside the family. The main character is a young lady who after tragically losing her entire family moves to another state meets and fall in love with Alex Coulter the third child of four and first of two sons. Known for his philandering ways Alex was a carbon copy of a doting grandpa. He loved his Grandpa Sam and lived by his bill of rights as a man. Both Alex and Brandi dug in their heels as they set out to staked their right of passage.
