The Greatest Gift Melody Carlson

A fanciful Christmas tale that brings new meaning to the idea of giving. The hearts of both children and adults will be touched as they read how Grace, smallest of the angels, chooses to leave the glory of heaven to become the Christmas star that lights the Son's way to earth. Because of her great love for Him, she gives all -- finally finishing her task, burning out, and falling to earth. But readers will rejoice over the redemptive ending and be moved by a life that has learned what it means to give The Greatest Gift!
