NEW: TEACHER TEACHER

Emma Matthews loves her life as a tenured professor at a quaint New England college. She makes a good living, is loved by her students, and respected by her peers. The only thing Emma doesn't have is someone to share her life with. She can't remember her last serious relationship, and has no interest whatsoever in the bevy of bubbly coeds that surround her each day. When Emma meets her new teaching partner, the alluring Sarah Bloom, the attraction is immediate and obvious. Emma tries to keep her desires in check, but when she learns that Sarah wants to be more than just her partner in the classroom, Emma abandons her inhibitions and finds herself suddenly open to anything that comes her way.

BOOK 1: DANCER: A First Time Lesbian Romance

Stephanie Green hated Kiara Jackson from the first moment she saw her dance. The new girl seemed friendly enough, but life had taught Stephanie to be wary of new people; especially a talented dancer like Kiara who might threaten her place as the troupe's star. Stephanie had worked her butt off for years to become one of the top dancers in the troupe, and she wouldn't let anyone take her place, certainly not a young unstart like Kiara. Stephanie hated the fact that everyone else loved Kiara, especially the owner of the studio, her Aunt Moira. Stephanie had built so many brick walls around herself that no one could break through, but her resistance just seemed to fuel Kiara's desire to become her friend, and perhaps, something more...

BOOK 2: CUTIE PIE

Sweet and innocent Kristine Price is an Iowa country girl who comes to New York City to attend college. Kris is totally out of her element and is terrified that she's made the wrong decision. Jeez, she can't even figure out how to unlock the door to her dorm room. Then she meets her roommate Izzy; a wildchild with purple hair, piercings, and an outlook on life that is enticing and contagious. Izzy is completely open about her lifestyle; it's one of the things that closeted Kris finds so appealing. Kris and Izzy become best pals and soon Kris finds herself being drawn out of her shell in more ways than one. Can Izzy and Kris become more than roommates? And how do they deal with their parents, who are not thrilled about the choices their daughters have made.
