The Zombie Apocalypse (Can You Survive?) Franklin Kendrick

Are you tough enough to survive the zombie apocalypse? The book you are holding in your hands is all about you. As you turn to the first page, you will find that you are the central character and the choices that you make will alter the path of the story dramatically. What starts out as a normal end to your shift at the local cinema quickly spirals out of control as the world's first zombie apocalypse wreaks havoc on the city you live in. Are you smart enough to survive this catastrophe? Or will you be killed by the undead minions - or worse, be transformed into one of them? Beware! Under no circumstances are you to read this book in order! At the bottom of each section you will find a set of choices. Turn to the page you desire and the book will take you to the next section of your journey. For those who like to keep track of their choices, they have been labeled with page numbers to aid you in your meticulous note keeping. Are you ready? One last note: This book is a horror book. If you are squeamish with blood and guts, you may want to read something else. Some of the sights you see may be gruesome. Still on board? Great. With all that said, good luck. Don't say I didn't warn you.
